

The American Constitution Society
_____ University Law School Chapter
123 Main St.
Anytown, GA 00000

January 1, 2014

Hon. John Justice
United States Court of Appeals for the Fourteenth Circuit
234 Constitution Court
Marietta, GA 00000

Dear Judge Justice:

I am writing on behalf of the _____ University Law School Chapter of the American Constitution Society (ACS), to invite you to speak to our members and the _____ University law school community. As you may know, ACS is one of the nation's leading progressive legal organizations. Founded in 2001, ACS is comprised of law students, lawyers, scholars, judges, policymakers, and activists who are working to ensure that the fundamental principles of human dignity, individual rights and liberties, genuine equality, and access to justice are in their rightful, central place in American law. We sponsor speakers, debates and other programs on constitutional issues.

We would be honored to have you speak as part of our fall program. We are particularly interested in your views about the tools a judge may appropriately use in interpreting the constitutional text, but we would love to hear you speak on any topic of your choice.

Wednesday afternoons between 1:00 and 3:00 pm present the best opportunity to speak to the largest number of students, although we would be delighted to have you speak on any day that is convenient for you. September 18 and September 25 would be ideal dates. If possible, we would be honored if you could attend a reception with students and faculty following your remarks. We will, of course, be happy to cover any travel or other expenses related to your visit.

I will call your chambers next week to follow up. If you would like to reach me, my phone number is (000) 000-0000. We very much hope you will accept our invitation. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Susan Student
_____ University Law School
American Constitution Society President