

RUTH BADER GINSBURG SCHOLAR AWARD

Application Coversheet

The American Constitution Society's Ruth Bader Ginsburg Scholar recognizes an outstanding scholar in the early stages of their academic career who has demonstrated those qualities exemplified by Justice Ginsburg: scholarly excellence, the ability to imagine how society might be more just and more equal, and the determination to use the law and one's scholarship to creatively and strategically make the imagined real.

Please fill out this form and email it, along with a resume or CV, a 500 - 1500 word statement, double-spaced, setting forth the candidate's qualifications, several representative publications (e.g., three law review articles and/or a book manuscript) written by the candidate that demonstrates their qualifications for the award to RBGaward@acslaw.org.

Please attach all documents in PDF form to a single email.

If you are nominating another person, please fill out Parts 1, 2, and 3. If you are nominating yourself, ignore Part 1 and only complete Parts 2 and 3. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Part 1: Contact Information of Nominator

1. Name:
2. Email:
3. Phone:

Part 2: Nominee Information

1. Name:
2. Email:
3. Phone:

Part 3: How did you hear about this award?

Direct any questions to RBGaward@acslaw.org