

The American Constitution Society Seeks a 2023-2024 Law Fellow

The Position:

The American Constitution Society (ACS), one of the nation's leading progressive legal organizations, seeks a talented graduating 3L or recent law school graduate for a Fellowship at ACS's national headquarters in Washington, DC, beginning in September 2023 and ending in August 2024. The Fellow will serve as part of ACS's Department of Policy and Program, which is led by a group of experienced attorneys who coordinate and facilitate ACS's rapidly expanding output of innovative, highly relevant legal and public policy work. The Fellow will work with Department staff to engage scholars, practitioners, public officials, and law students in the articulation and dissemination of a progressive vision of the Constitution, law, and public policy.

The Fellow will have the opportunity to work on a range of progressive issues in which ACS engages, including: Access to Justice; Criminal Legal Reform; Economic, Workplace and Environmental Regulation; Racial Justice and Equity; Gender Equality and Reproductive Rights; First Amendment; Separation of Powers and Federalism; Constitutional Interpretation; and Democracy and Voting.

Qualifications:

Candidates must have a demonstrated interest in advancing the mission of ACS. Strong legal research and writing skills are required and ideal candidates will be Bluebook proficient. Journal experience is preferred. The Fellow must take direction well and work collaboratively, while also being self-starting.

This position will report to the Senior Director of Policy and Program. The salary for this position is $55,000. Benefits include generous health, vision, and dental insurance, and paid vacation, holiday, and sick leave.

ACS values a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture. ACS encourages applications from all qualified individuals without regard to race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, national origin, marital status, citizenship, disability, and veteran status.

ACS requires COVID-19 vaccination of all employees that perform in-person job duties.

Location:

ACS's national office is located in Washington, D.C. The Fellow may work hybrid in-office/remotely if they live in the Washington metropolitan area or remotely if they live outside that area with the expectation of occasional travel to Washington D.C., when necessary.

How to Apply:

Interested applicants should email a cover letter, resume, and writing sample of no longer than five pages to jobs@acslaw.org. No phone calls please.