2010 ACS National Student Writing Competition Finalists and Winners

Judges

- Judge Berle Schiller (E.D. Pa.)
- Judge Norma Shapiro (E.D. Pa.)
- Judge Lynn S. Adelman (E.D. Wis.)
- Professor Matthew Adler, The University of Pennsylvania Law School
- Professor Pamela Karlan (ACS National Board Member), Stanford Law School
- Professor Cheryl Harris, University of California, Los Angeles School of Law

Winner

From the Shores of Tripoli to the Deserts of Iraq: Congress and the President in Offensive and Defensive Wars
- Alex Whitman, Emory University

Runners-Up

“But a Truism”: Why ‘the People’ Have Standing Rights Under the Tenth Amendment and How Tennessee Electric Power Co. v. Tennessee Electric Authority led to Nearly Seventy-Five Years of Confusion
- Kristin Oickle, New England School of Law

America: the Country of Czars?
- Keena Patel, Georgia State University

Other Finalists

Pleading Their Case: How Ashcroft v. Iqbal Extinguishes Prisoners’ Rights
- Maureen Brocco, University of Maryland

Reasserting its Constitutional Role: Congress’s Power to Independently Terminate a Treaty
- David Wolff, Stanford University